8	FINANCIAL MATTERS. The Grass Cutting Contract was awarded to Chris Lowe our existing contractor who it was deemed has served us well for the past three years and had once again submitted the lowest tender..	8.04
9	HIGHWAYS AND TRANSPORTATION MATTERS. 9.1 General Conditions of Roads and Footpaths. It had been noted that the requests made by the Parish Council in respect of the potholes within our boundaries had received some prompt attention and though it was felt that the criteria by which the state of an individual defect is addressed are a little broad in their interpretation we were appreciative of the work already done and that, that was marked fo4r further improvement.	8.07
10	ANY OTHER URGENT BUSINESS NOT ON THE AGENDA Councillor Wilberforce requested that a location is found for the sandbag machine, the sand and the unfilled sandbags. The Clerk is to investigate the provision of a Recycled Plastic Storage unit that might be located in the Institute Car Park. District Councillor Ian Galloway informed the meeting that the District Plan is now complete and will be submitted to the Secretary of State for approval.
